Accommodation

Situated in a place rich of hills, in perfect harmony with the surrounding country, provided of a modern and functional system of services, Todi appears as a “sustainable” town, in contradiction with the tendency to realize large and chaotic urban centers. The town is rich of monuments: the Temple of Santa Maria della Consolazione (a building of the late Renaissance), the gothic Temple of San Fortunato, the aristocratic Piazza del Popolo. Todi had 365 castles too, strewn among the hills. Many of them are still visible.

Students can take advantage of the favorable conditions offered by a guest house located in the historic centre:
